

Record Session History (Use Case 5 - Record session history)

This shows a record of the treatment history be saved in memory after a treatment session is complete. The record is created at the beginning of the session and updated at the end to match current level changes.

